- PROGRAMME Slides will be presented at the Meeting made available by the Australian Orchid Council. The Monthly Plant Competition will be resumed.
- OFFICE BEARERS 1977 The following nominations have been received:--
- |                |                                    |
|----------------|------------------------------------|
| President      | No nomination                      |
| Vice-President | Keith Northcote                    |
| Secretary      | No nomination                      |
| Treasurer      | Brenda Lynch                       |
| Committee      | Thoral Tormet                      |
| Committee      | Two vacancies require nominations. |
- It is of the utmost importance that nominations shall be received for all of the above vacancies prior to the Annual General Meeting. The procedure will be that as nominations have closed the vacancies in accordance with the Constitution are to be filled by the Committee and therefore any nomination received after the closing date should be regarded as indications of willingness to fill a vacancy.
- The Committee have considered the duties of Secretary and it is envisaged that the honorarium will be in the vicinity of $200 to cover Monthly Meetings, Committee Meetings and Club correspondence. The responsibility of the Marion Show will be handled independently unless the appointee indicates otherwise.
- ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS The Committee have fixed the Subscription rate for 1977 as $2.00 per Member. Subscriptions are now due and payable. With respect to those Members who joined at the 1976 rates they shall be deemed to be financial.
- MISCELLANEOUS DUTIES Members who would like the opportunity of becoming involved in the activities of either Judges, Plant Stewards, Ticket Sellers, or any other of the various chores are asked to indicate their willingness to the Secretary.
- NEXT COMMITTEE MEETING The next Committee Meeting will be held at the home of Les Poole on January 18 at 7.30 p.m.
